

Estate & Succession Planning for the Family Farm

July 20, 2017

Speaker Biography

Kyle Mandeville

Attorney

Bennett Boehning & Clary LLP

Kyle represents clients in the many business matters of a farm operation. He assists with the business, real estate and estate planning needs of business owners. Kyle creates estate plans that successfully transfer family businesses to the next generation.

Upon graduation from the Indiana University Robert H. McKinney School of Law, he returned to the Lafayette to practice law. During his first few years at the firm, Kyle's practice involved litigation cases, business transactions and many other areas that have allows him to understand common farm family matters.

In addition to practicing at BB&C, Kyle teaches a Purdue University farm estate planning course and trains students to work hard and build wealth. In his free time, Kyle stays active around his family's farm homestead. He serves on his church board, as well as the board for Going Global Inc., an international orphanage non-profit organization.